

Mountain Maryland Restaurant Week September 8 – 17, 2017

Who? Restaurant Week is open to locally owned, non-franchise, non-corporately owned restaurants within Allegany County, Maryland.

What? Restaurant Week is a 10-day event celebrating the local flavors and dining entrepreneurship in Allegany County.

Where? Participating restaurants must operate within the borders of Allegany County, Maryland or possess an Allegany County address.

When? September 8 - 17, 2017.

Why? The goal of Restaurant Week is to highlight the numerous and diverse dining options within our community. Restaurant weeks are designed to help boost business. Traditionally during restaurant weeks, restaurants offer prix-fixe meals to give diners the opportunity to experience the areas dining landscape without breaking the bank.

FAQ:

Will it cost my restaurant money to participate? No. Your restaurant will not have to pay a fee to participate.

Do I have to adhere to a certain promotion format to participate? No. We strongly encourage a prix fixe menu format which is what is commonly known in restaurant weeks. These are typically three-course prix fixe menus that the restaurant designates for restaurant week and offers every night they are open from September 8 - 17, 2017. Being that this is the first year for the event, we are allowing a special promotion to be honored in lieu of. The promotion must be valid every day of restaurant week that the restaurant is open. You must run a prix fixe menu or promotion to be promoted during Restaurant Week.

Does this price include taxes and tips? No. And please remember to tip your bartender and server well.

Do participating restaurants have to accept reservations? Your restaurant does not have to accept reservations.

When is the deadline to participate in Restaurant Week? There is no deadline to participate in Restaurant Week. However, we recommend signing up by September 1, 2017 for proper inclusion.